RE: Waterfowl Blind Regulations

The following action was taken by the Southold Town Board of Trustees at their Regular Meeting held on Wednesday, June 18, 2014:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of the Town of Southold hereby adopts the revised Waterfowl Blind Permit Regulations as written effective June 19, 2014:

WATERFOWL BLIND REGULATIONS

Waterfowl Blinds on or over Town underwater lands must have a Mooring Permit from the Board of Trustees pursuant to Chapter 96 of the Town Code.

1. Said permit shall be in force from August 25th through March 31st.
2. Permitted functional blinds shall be in place by November 1st each year or the permit may be rescinded. Blinds must be removed no later than March 31st.
3. A copy of said permit must be posted inside the blind.
4. No more than one blind permit will be issued per person.
5. A blind may be no closer than 500' from another blind and provide at least a 500' unobstructed safety zone for firearm discharge in front of the blind, including navigation channels.
