TOWN OF SOUTHOLD

The Town Board of the Town of Southold created the Local Development Corporation (LDC) to help stimulate economic development throughout the Town by assisting local non-profit organizations in enhancing and/or expanding their services to the public. Local Development Corporations are private, not-for-profit corporations that finance major capital projects and operational expenses for non-profit institutions.

The Town is seeking the expertise of local residents with significant experience in financial management to volunteer to serve on the Board of Directors of its Local Development Corporation. Interested applicants should send a letter of interest and/or curriculum vitae to: Elizabeth Neville, Town Clerk, Town Hall, PO Box 1179, Southold, New York by July 26, 2019. Southold Town is an Equal Opportunity Affirmative Action Employer.
